SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT DEPARTMENT

The 27th/28th July, 2010

No. 908-S(4).—A scheme named as “Scheme of State Awards for Older Persons” was approved on 27th September,

2007 and started in the year 2008-09 to encourage and honour the persons of the age of 60 years and above and Panchayats which have done pioneering work for the welfare of older persons at Panchayat level, is partially modified and notified as under :—

Aims & Objectives

Due to increase in the expectancy of life, the percentage of persons above the age of 60 years among the total population is increasing. The joint family system has completely broken down and there is a marked trend of withdrawal of family support. The total population of Haryana State as per 2001 census is 2.11 crores out of which about 6.8% of the population belongs to 60 +age group. This may further go up. It is the need of the hour to create an awareness in the society about taking up the case of elderly persons who have given long years of their lives in the service of the society. There is a need to create such favourable conditions so that the senior citizens could spend rest of their lives with dignity and also provide the benefit of their long experiences in various fields to the society in general.

Facilities being provided presently

The Government of Haryana is making all efforts for providing social security and welfare of the senior citizens in the State. The Government is running Vikas Puttar Yug Purush Chaudhary Bansi Lal Home for the Aged & Infirm at Rewari which has a capacity of 100 inmates. In addition, NGOs are also running six Old Age Homes and 12 Day Care Centres in various districts. At these Centres/Homes facilities like boarding, loading, medical care, indoor games etc. are provided to the senior citizens.

1st October is observed as International Day of the Elderly. As people across the country tend to live increasingly longer lives, our society has a stake in encouraging and easing a productive, active and healthy ageing process. The whole nation stands to gain from an empowered older generation, with the potential to make tremendous contributions to the development process and to the work of building more productive, peaceful and sustainable society.

New Ventures to Further the Aims of the Scheme

Keeping in view the above background and being the nodal department for the welfare of senior citizens, Social Justice & Empowerment Department has been celebrating the occasion every year by organizing a series of seminars/programmes. To Encourage and motivate the senior citizens it is proposed to institute the following 5 Awards in the following categories :—

- (a) Chaudhary Ranbir Singh Centenarian Award for the individuals who are 90+ years and still working and contributing to the society.
- (b) Mother Teresa Award for mothers who have fought against all odds so that their children may fulfill there dream.
